Movie Hub

The purpose :

Movie Hub is a community for movie lovers. It allows users to login and access a variety of features, including browsing different movie categories, viewing information about movies, interacting with other users through the community section, and performing CRUD operations on posts and comments.

Target Audience :

The target audience for Movie Hub is anyone who loves movies and wants to interact with other like-minded individuals.

Technologies Used :

Movie Hub has been developed using the following technologies:

- React.js

- React Bootstrap

- Django Rest Framework

- Python

Features and Functionality

- ### Homepage

  Upon logging into Movie Hub, users will be taken to the homepage. The homepage includes a navigation bar that allows users to browse different movie categories. Users can also view information about specific movies, such as ratings and reviews.

- ### Community Section

  The community section allows users to interact with one another by creating posts and leaving comments on existing posts. Users can perform CRUD operations on their own posts and comments.

- ### Formatting

  All Heading Text in Movie Hub is displayed at a font size of 18px and Bold , Information about heading at a font size of 14px.

Conclusion

Movie Hub is the perfect place for movie lovers to connect with one another and share their thoughts on their favorite films. With its easy-to-use interface and variety of features, Movie Hub is sure to become a favorite among movie enthusiasts everywhere.